

Proposed ACHE Membership Categories

Institutional

An institutional membership is open to institutions of higher learning which have programming or administrative units responsible for continuing higher education activities. The institution must hold current regional accreditation or the international counterpart. An institutional member can name as many representatives as it wishes. One of the representatives is designated to cast its vote on matters of the Constitution and Bylaws. All representatives will receive the ACHE publications, will have voting rights except on matters of Constitution and Bylaws, and may hold any office.

Application Fee (one-time) - $125

Annual Dues - $495

Organizational

An organizational membership is open to non-higher education associations, organizations, and government agencies which have a major commitment to and affiliation with continuing higher education. An organizational member can name as many representatives as it wishes. One of the representatives is designated to cast its vote on matters of the Constitution and Bylaws. All representatives will receive the ACHE publications, will have voting rights except on matters of Constitution and Bylaws, and may hold any office.

Application Fee (one-time) - $125

Annual Dues - $495

Professional

A professional membership is open to a person whose major commitment is in the area of continuing education. This membership is not transferable. A professional member receives ACHE publications, has voting rights except on matters of Constitution and Bylaws, and may hold any office.

Student

A student membership is open to any full or part-time student pursuing a graduate degree in a field related to continuing higher education. The student must have an advisor's signature on the application for student membership. A student membership is renewable annually for up to three years. This member has online access to ACHE publications and has voting rights except on matters of Constitution and Bylaws. A student member may not hold office.

Annual Dues: $24

Retiree

A retiree membership is open to any former ACHE member upon his or her retirement. This member has online access to ACHE publication and has voting rights except on matters of Constitution and Bylaws. A retiree member may not hold office.

Annual Dues: $24
