Steal This...Sharing Success and Best Practices

Conference Program

Conference Location

Join us as we examine best practices in graduate and continuing higher education from various viewpoints. The April 28 conference is your pathway to discovering best practices in general topical areas such as student services, lifelong learning programs and strategic partnerships with business and school systems.

“If you always do what you always did, you will always get what you always got” (Anonymus)

“Learning organizations...(are those) where people continually expand their capacity to create the results they truly desire, where new and expansive patterns of thinking are nurtured, where collective aspiration is set free and where people are continually learning how to learn together” (Peter Senge)

“Benchmarking is the search for the best practices and performance” (Robert Camp)

Date: Wednesday, April 28, 2004

Time: 8:45 – 3:15 p.m.

Where: Rondileau Campus Center
Bridgewater State College

Who: Adult Educators, CE Faculty, Registrars, Business Staff, Admission Officers, Student Services Staff, CE Administrators, Deans, Directors, Associate Provosts, Higher Education Continuing Educators and many others affiliated with adults as learners.
